

National Company. Local Service.

DGS Statement on Slavery and Human Trafficking

DGS Group plc offers the following statement regarding its efforts to prevent slavery and human trafficking within the company and its supply chain.

DGS recognises its social responsibility as part of the community in which it operates and respects the political, social, legal and cultural diversity of all its stakeholders. Our procedures and policies are designed to comply with the expectations of applicable legislation in the markets and jurisdictions in which we operate. We maintain and promote an ethical business culture and do not tolerate the use of forced labour in any aspect of our organisation.

DGS Group Plc strongly opposes slavery and human trafficking and rejects any form of forced labour. We would never knowingly conduct business with suppliers or contractors engaged in such practices.

This statement will be updated when necessary and reviewed annually.

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "D. Aucott".

D Aucott
Managing Director
Updated March 2017